2nd Chinese Academic Conference on Adipose Plastic Surgery
& International Symposium on Adipose Transplantation

July 17-18,2015 Shanghai,China

Dear Dr. Daniel Alexander Del Vecchio:

On behalf of all co-presidents and academic chairs of the congress we would like to express our sincere appreciation to you serving as an invited faculty of academic conference of the 2nd Chinese Academic Conference on Adipose Plastic Surgery & International symposium on Adipose Transplantation in Shanghai, China, July 17-18,2015. The meeting has been successful from many perspectives .The plastic surgery part of the congress had the strongest contributions form experts like you. Without your participation we wouldn't have had as a successful meeting especially in the plastic surgery part of the congress. Your expertise and excellent presentation has truly made an impact on the audience, primarily from private plastic surgery hospitals and clinics in Mainland China or in your country. Obviously, this was the second time to organize the meeting. We will have a lot of learn from our experiences. We firmly believe next year's a congress will be more successful.

We also hope you have enjoyed Shanghai, an international metropolis city with beautiful scenery. We're sure you also had plenty of opportunities to enjoy the social events of the congress along with meeting old or new friends and colleagues from the USA , Japan, France, Italy, South Korea, Switzerland, Taiwan, Mainland China.

We sincerely hope that you will have continues interest in promoting scientific exchange and education in Plastic surgery. Enjoy the rest of the summer and we look forward to seeing you in the near future.

Sincerely yours

SONG Jianxing, M.D.
